R there, oyster, if you don't know who your side partner in the soup is, let us introduce you to ex-acting President Theodore Roosevelt.

To vote for a Republican on personal grounds is like pretending to be against the works of the Devil and then doing something that guarantees Old Nick a steady job.

It is said that twenty boys to one girl are now being born in this country. If this thing keeps up the girls will have a still more extravagant idea of their importance. Minority rule threatens the country.

One of the Republican campaign boasts is that "the government is stronger than the trusts." That is the reason, then, that the government does not set down on the trusts. It looks to Roosevelt like the strong crushing the weak.

When the trusts make a subscription to the stand pat Republican fund, it is just a temporary expenditure. The protective tariff will take a hundred fold more out of the pockets of the people and dump it back into the coffers of the trusts.

Washington bread which has been selling in Wilmington at 5 cents a loaf is now selling at 6 cents. A sudden rise of twenty per cent. in the one item of bread makes the bread winner realize why the full dinner pail had to take a back seat in this campaign.

Several Swedish, Norwegian and German vessels which have arrived in ports of those countries in the past few days report that they were also fired upon at sea by the Russian Baltic fleet. No wonder there is considerable clamor in England to have this crazy fleet headed off and turned back.

Says the Raleigh News and Observer: "A Cincinnati woman has brought suit for $15,000 for a stolen kiss. If a kiss stolen from a Cincinnati girl is worth $15,000, the market price in Raleigh would be one million dollars." A multi-millionaire would go broke right here in Wilmington.

The Raleigh News and Observer says: "How many people know that the Socialists have nominated a ticket in North Carolina? Their candidate for Governor is W. A. Pegram and for Lieutenant Governor is J. C. Lousey. Will they get a dozen votes?" Nit, we should say for the Pegram Lousey ticket.

A New York married man got married to another woman and when put in jail for bigamy, he put up the plea that he had absolutely forgotten that he had a wife. You may think he is lying but Republican spell-binders are asking us to believe even tougher yarns than that.

CONSECRATION DAY.

Beautiful and Most Impressive Exercises in St. James' Church Tuesday.

PROMINENT VISITORS COMING

Bishop Capers, of South Carolina, Will Preside — Reception to Coadjutor Elect Tuesday Evening at W. L. I. Armory—Services.

All arrangements are complete for the beautiful and imposing ceremonies which on All Saints' Day, Tuesday of this week, will mark the consecration of the Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., formerly of this city, now of Richmond, Va., as Bishop Co-Adjutor o the East Carolina Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church. The committee in charge of the arrangements, composed of Messrs. Thos. D. Meares, J. Victor Grainger, Clayton Giles, M. F. H. Gouverneur and Swift M. Boatwright, has worked industriously and the fruition of the committee's efforts will be a glorious service of the consecration on Tuesday. A large number of prominent clergymen and laymen of the church will be in attendance and Wilmington may account itself fortunate that the consecration will so properly take place here.

On All Saints' Day Morning Prayer will be observed at 7:45 A. M. and the consecration service will begin at 11 A. M. The church will be opened for the consecration service, however, at 10:15 A. M. and ushers will be present to seat all who have cards of admission. The usual seating capacity of the church is about 675. By placing extra seats in the aisles and baptistry, accommodation has been provided for 839. As each card has the pew number on it, the importance of bringing it is very great. Ushers may know parties are entitled to seats, but cannot tell in what pew without the cards. As the cards are really invitations, only those can use them to whom they have been sent. The committee is prepared, however, to reissue cards, where transfer is desired.

Dr. Strange, the Bishop Coadjutor-elect, will arrive to-morrow evening and will be the guest of Mr. G. Herbert Smith.

A reception will be tendered the newly consecrated Bishop on Tuesday night, at which the numerous friends of Dr. Strange in the city will be welcome. The reception will be held in the armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry, kindly tendered for the occasion, from 8:30 to 10:30 P. M.

Rt. Rev. Ellison Capers, Bishop of South Carolina, will preside at the Consecration service instead of Bishop Tuttle, of St. Louis, Mo., as was expected, and in addition to the beloved Bishop Watson, of East Carolina, the following will be present and take part in the service: Rt. Rev. Robert Atkinson Gibson, D. D., Bishop of Virginia; Rt. Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, D. D., Bishop of Southern Virginia; Rt. Rev. Theodore D. Bratton, D. D., Bishop of Mississippi; Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina; Rt. Rev. Junius M. Horner, D. D., Bishop of Asheville.

The following clergymen of the East Carolina Diocese have signified their intention to be present: Rev. W. E. Cox, Greenville; Rev. R. B. Drane, D. D., Edenton; Rev. Luther Eborn, Cresswell; Rev. Jno. H. Griffith, Jr., Kinston; Rev. Nathaniel Harding, President of Diocesan Council, Washington; Rev. F. N. Skinner, Secretary of Diocesan Council, Clinton; Rev. T. P. Noe, Beaufort; Rev. L. L. Williams, Elizabeth City; Rev. F. B. Tickner, Aurora; Rev. J. S. Moody, Fayetteville; Rev. F. H. T. Horsfield, Goldsboro; Rev. Isaac W. Hughes, Fayetteville.

The following clergymen of the Wilmington churches will also be present: Rev. James Carmichael, D. D., of St. John's; Rev. R. W. Hogue, of St. James'; Rev. A. W. Seabrease, of St. Paul's, and Rev. E. R. Bennett, of St. Mark's.

Clergymen from other Dioceses will be represented by Rev. Wm. M. Clark, D. D., of Virginia, Editor of the Southern Churchman; Rev. Dan. J. Miller, of Grace church, Baltimore; Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, Raleigh; Rev. J. Taylor Chambers, of Weldon; Rev. Cary Gamble, of Wilson, and Rev. Walter J. Smith, of Charlotte.

Among those expected from other points are Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., and Rev. R. C. Beaman, of Durham; Rev. A. P. Tyer, of Wilson, all distinguished divines of the Methodist church; Rev. E. B. Oliver, a prominent clergyman of the Baptist church. All of these ministers were contemporaries of Dr. Strange while he was resident here. Dr. L. M. Blackford, principal of a school near Alexandria, and a party of ten or twelve from Richmond, Va. Dr. F. P. Venable, president of the University; Hon. H. G. Connor, Hon. Richard H. Battle and Dr. Richard H. Lewis, of Raleigh.

Bishop Capers will be the guest of Mr. E. C. Holt; Bishop Gibson of Col. John W. Atkinson; Bishop Randolph of Mr. Jas. Sprunt; Bishop Cheshire of Dr. George G. Thomas; Bishop Horner of Mr. Clayton Giles, and Bishop Bratton of Mrs. P. L. Bridgers.

Programmes of the service with reference "Consecration of Bishops" in Prayer Book, are being issued, the exercises opening with Processional, Hymn 491. The programme follows:

THE COMMUNION SERVICE.

Bishop Strange will be the fourth Bishop furnished the church from this city. Bishop Davis, of South Carolina, and Bishop Green, of Mississippi, were natives of this section, and Bishop Watson was called to the Bishopric while rector of St. James' church, which he had served over 20 years, after previous service as chaplain in the Confederate army, and for many years before the war in the eastern part of the State.

MR. S. F. JONES TO SPEAK.

Interesting Address in St. James' This Morning; Academy To-morrow.

This morning at 11 o'clock in St. James' church, and Monday night at 7:45 o'clock in the Academy of Music Mr. Samuel F. Jones, of Boston, will speak of his interesting work as superintendent of St. Stephen's Rescue Work for Men. This work is located in the worst part of the city of Boston, and is of a nature to interest every person desirous of righteous citizenship in our community. Mr. Jones comes without remuneration and at a personal sacrifice to accept the invitation urged upon him to speak to Wilmington people. There will be no charge at the Monday night address, but any one who wishes to do so may contribute to the Sunday morning offering at St. James', which will be given to Mr. Jones. The hour for Mr. Jones' address in the church was changed from evening to morning on account of the incompletion of the lighting in the building. He will be introduced at the Academy Monday evening by Bishop Capers, of South Carolina.

Open Republican Headquarters.

Republican headquarters will be opened this week in Tiencken's Hall, over Mr. A. H. Holmes' grocery store, on South Front street. Such was the announcement given by County Chairman Wallace to a reporter last night. "What's the use?" queried the reporter. "Oh, we want a place where we can disseminate our views; from whence we can distribute good literature and give the best imaginable information," replied Mr. Wallace. The headquarters will be open to the public every night, except Thursday, when there is a lodge meeting, until after the election. The county executive committee will be in charge and all "seekers after the truth" are invited. On the night of Nov. 8th, election returns will be received by telegraph at the headquarters.

Chrysanthemum Show.

Mr. Will Rehder, the florist, will have a chrysanthemum show in the lodge room of the Elks on Thursday and Friday evening November 3rd and 4th, for the benefit of the Wilmington Piano Club and the Wilmington Lodge of Elks. The ladies of the Wilmington Piano Club will serve tea, coffee, chocolate, ice cream and sandwiches in the parlor and hall of the Elks' Home, which will be converted into a Japanese garden, with lanterns and electric lights. The proceeds are to be divided between the Wilmington Piano Club, which has recently purchased a fine Sohmer piano, and the Wilmington Lodge of Elks for their charity fund. The rooms have been given for this purpose for those two days and everybody is welcome to attend. The admission will be only ten cents.

On To St. Louis Exposition.

The Seaboard Air Line has announced another of its personally conducted tours to the World's Fair on Nov. 10th from all points in North Carolina. Train starts from Raleigh 4 P. M. The route will be over the S. A. L. to Atlanta; over the N. C. & St. L. Ry. to Martin, Tenn.; thence by the Illinois Central to the "City Beautiful." Further particulars will be given in Tuesday's paper.

Thousands of columns have been written in praise of the Forepaugh dancing elephants and the Sells Brothers gigantic soldier tuskers, and it has been repeatedly illustrated that they well deserve the compliment.

Best chance to purchase your Winter Jacket, $18.50. Tourist, 3-4 length Coat, black or tan, special for $15, this week, at Rehder's Cloak Department. †

Tell-o ice cream will be served free to ladies at Gaylord's store during his surplus sale. Starts Nov. 2.

MISTRIAL IS RESULT.

Penny Damage Suit Must Come Up for Fifth Hearing in the Superior Court.

DIVORCE MILL ACTING SLOW.

Jury Comments Upon Need of Amendments to Law—Clark Gets Verdict from Delaware and Lackawana Railroad—Other Notes.

After remaining out for a little more than twenty-four hours, the jury in the $20,000 damage suit of B. F. Penny against the railroad, came into Superior Court, as the session was about to adjourn yesterday evening and reported that no agreement had been reached. The jurors stood seven for the defendant railroad and five for the plaintiff, Mr. Penny. The division was upon the very first issue: "Was the plaintiff injured by the negligence of the defendant?" No attempt was made to pass upon the second and third issues as to whether the plaintiff by his own negligence contributed to his injury or what damage, if any, had been sustained, by him, the question of the railroad's liability in any event having been the sole matter of controversy between the twelve men, who had heard patiently since Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock the whole case from start to finish. The jurors divided as follows:

For Plaintiff—H. W. Howell, G. C. Simmons, E. M. Sleeper, G. B. Myers and S. S. Drew.

For Defendant—W. H. Northrop, Jr., R. A. Burnett, John C. Heyer, D. H. Penton, E. L. Davis, A. Millinor and J. C. Bordeaux.

When court convened yesterday morning the jury came in a body before Judge Moore and said there was absolutely no possibility of an agreement. Judge Moore gave them some little additional instructions as requested and sent them back to the room. It was seen, however, that there was quite an agreement to disagree and the jury sat quietly or lounged on the desks and window sills of the judge's room where they were confined and waited for the term to adjourn. Late in the afternoon, however, as stated, Judge Moore sent, for the jury and the foreman was again asked if there was any possibility of an agreement. The foreman replied in the negative and Judge Moore asked for a hand vote as to how many of the jurors were of the same opinion. Every hand went up and once more they retired. Judge Moore then conferred with counsel and it was agreed that a mistrial was inevitable. The jury once more filed into the court room, a juror was withdrawn and a mistrial was ordered to be entered on the clerk's docket. Judge Moore expressed regret that the jury was unable to agree, saying that an entire week, at great expense to one or the other of the litigants had been consumed in the trial and the same thing had occurred twice before, but he had no harsh criticism of any of them. He believed members of the jury to be men of intelligence and integrity, who had honest differences on the question. He discharged them with the thanks of the court. The case will come up at the next January term of court.

Practically all of yesterday in the Superior Court was consumed in the completion of the suit of O. L. Clark vs. the Delaware, Lackawana & Western Railroad Co., for the recovery of $3,468.47, due the plaintiff for cross ties shipped in January or February of this year. A large number of witnesses were examined during the day, one of whom was Mr. George F. Wilson, purchasing agent of the road. The jury retired with the case about 5 o'clock and returned a verdict for the plaintiff, Mr. Clark, for the entire amount within 30 minutes after retiring.

The court was next engaged for some time in hearing cases on the motion docket, a large number of unimportant entries having been made.

The "divorce mill" started late in the afternoon, but it didn't grind with the usual rapidity. Judge Moore insisted upon inquiring carefully into each case and the jury was of the same opinion that such matters should not be pushed through with the usual rush and lack of due consideration. Plaintiffs in the following cases were granted divorces upon grounds of abandonment:

Eva Montgomery vs C. A. Montgomery.
Annie P. Baldwin vs J. D. Baldwin.
Frances E. Jones vs Weldon C. Jones.
Mary B. Fulcher vs Martin H. Fulcher.

The jury which had the cases in hearing was composed as follows: W. D. Hall, J. G. Carney, Reuben Grant, E. P. Owens, Jno. F. Garrell, C. M. Brewer, G. W. Rogers, C. C. Parker, W. F. Corbett, H. F. Farrow, W. P. Carroll and Ludwig Hansen. As the divorce calendar was completed, Capt. Corbett, foreman of the jury, asked permission to make a statement. He said he and his fellow jurors viewed with alarm the present divorce evil and the laxity of the law. He desired to enter the protest of the jury against present laws. Judge Moore, in reply, stated that he thought there was abundant reason for amendments to the law and he hoped that the matter would receive due consideration by the next Legislature. However, the court and its jury were only to execute the law as they found it. He intimated that he would use his influence with the next Legislature to procure remedial legislation.

The greatest stock sale will start Nov. 2nd at Gaylord's store.

Ordered a Place Closed.

A lodging house kept by Charles Oater, white, over the old store of the Brunswick Grocery Co., on the wharf, was ordered closed by the Mayor yesterday upon the strength of evidence developed in the police court at noon in a case wherein Oates was charged with an assault upon a soldier from Fort Caswell. The soldier had previously chucked Proprietor Oates down stairs, but in view of the provocation, the soldier was let off with the costs. Oates was fined $5 and costs for the assault and required to pay seven months license as a boarding house keeper. He defaulted payment and is held at the station house. The atmosphere of the place appeared to the Mayor to be bad, hence his order for Oates to "shut up shop."

Pastor Hale's Special Sermons.

To-night Pastor Hale, of the First Baptist church, will begin a series of four Sunday night sermons on four popular institutions of the world, the influence of which Christians will be warned against. The subject in the series for this Sunday night will be "The Ball-room." When a young man, Dr. Hale says, he was a great fiddler and dancer, and now he proposes to tell some things he knows as to the effects of the modern dance, both in high and low society. The three following companion sermons will be on "The Theatre," "The Card Table" and "The Saloon." Parents, as well as the young people, are invited to hear al four of these practical sermons.

Wedding in Pender.

OFFERINGS AT ACADEMY.

Pinero's Beautiful Story of "Iris" Tuesday Night—Paul Gilmore Monday Night Week—Other Dates.

The theatrical event extraordinary of the present week will be Pinero's famous "Iris," which created such a furore in London last season. The play will be seen here with the charming young emotional actress, Jeanne Towler, in the leading role. The sale of seats opens at Plummer's to-morrow morning and the sale promises to be large.

The plot reveals in five acts the story, decline and fall of a luxurious woman, who is not vicious, but merely weak, indolent and ease-loving.

She is Iris Bellamy, a rich widow of twenty-five, who is surrounded by many admirers and friends of both sexes. By the terms of her husband's will she cannot marry again without forfeiting her heritage in toto. The real rivals among her numerous suitors are Laurence Trenwith, a young man of no means except as a meagre cattle-rancher in British Columbia, and Frederick Maldonado, a lurid millionaire of mixed Spanish and Hebraic extraction. Iris favors Trenwith, but cannot make up her mind to forego her fortune and share his poverty. He thereupon departs to his ranch in the hope of gaining fortune enough there to enable him to maintain Iris as his wife.

Iris next loses her income through the embezzlement of the trustee of her estate. Maldonado here calls in sympathy, and leaves her a bank cheque book with a large deposit to her credit. She affects to ignore his unsolicited assistance but ultimately falls a victim to the temptation, and finally tolerates Maldonado's attentions and protection, to the dismay and disapproval of her better friends. Trenwith returns from the ranch in prosperity, but disowns Iris on discovering her relations with Maldonado. The millionaire having heard Iris vainly pleading for forgiveness with Trenwith, casts her adrift penniless, and then wrecks the furniture in her home.

The play is viewed as an accepted homily for purity and self-sacrifice. It is a story of the ethics of life, and it is said to teach a wholesome lesson, in the Pinero style.

PAUL GILMORE.

The local management waxes quite eloquent in endorsing the coming engagement of Paul Gilmore in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," which was one of the genuine hits of the past season. Mr. Gilmore in the leading role of Lord "Jack" Lumley has a part that fits him better than any other he has ever appeared in. Local theatre goers who saw his finished performance last season are advising their friends not to miss it this season, and a large and select audience is certain to greet Mr. Gilmore and his clever company when they appear here soon.

Answer—A lady's photo is like the contents of a beehive because it must be skillfully taken to be valuable. The exact answer was not given, but the popular postman, Mr. A. B. Guyton, came nearer the mark and is awarded the prize. We now offer one dozen $15.00 carbon platino or platinum photos to the first one guessing the date we open for business our new studio in the Heyer building. Sealed dates received till Nov. 15th. Write "Guess" on outside. If a lady wins, a fine frame extra. U. C. Ellis. †

PROTECTION FOR FARMERS.

The Baltimore Sun in an editorial on Friday illustrates one of the beauties of the tariff as applied to farmers. Our esteemed contemporary says:

Minneapolis millers are said to be buying Manitoba wheat, which they will manufacture under bond so as to be able to export flour at a profit. By manufacturing under bond they will escape paying the tariff tax of 25 cents a bushel on Canadian wheat, and thus defeat the expectations of farmers who suppose that the tariff will now at least work in their favor. The supply from our own Northwest is short, the quality is inferior and the price is high. The home consumer will not be allowed to buy the cheap flour made from the excellent Canadian grain, but the foreigner will have that privilege. With flour, as with other things, the foreigner gets the lower price, owing to the iniquities of our tariff.

When the 25 cents a bushel duty was put on wheat it was said to be for the benefit of the American farmer. Our rual voters were called upon to admire the comprehensive and beneficent character of the Dingley tariff, which protects the farmer as well as the manufacturer. At that time we were selling, not buying wheat, so that the farmer had to wait for his whack at the consumer. But now that wheat is scarce and the price of the home article goes up, the Minneapolis millers refuse to buy it, but buy the Manitoban wheat and escape paying duty by exporting all their flour. Where does the trusting admiring farmer come in? Where does the American consumer come in? Just nowhere. They were never intended to be allowed on the inside. Their part of the scheme is to stand and be plucked.

While Minneapolis looks to Manitoba for its wheat, it is of interest to know that Richmond, Va., expects to get Russian wheat from the Black sea for conversion into flour. The Richmond mills require a special quality of wheat to supply their South American flour trade, and at present prices of the domestic article the Russian grain can perhaps leap over our tariff wall. It is held to be necessary to import grain in order to retain foreign customers, who must not be allowed to form the habit of looking elsewhere for their flour. If the mills grind under bond, in order to escape duty on imported grain, they must keep such grain wholly apart from the domestic article, and must sell all the flour, bran and by-products made from it abroad. It is clear that they could conduct their business better with free wheat. With free wheat there would be no risk of losing valued foreign customers, nor of being forbidden to feed by-products to one's own pigs. The price of wheat would be less variable, speculation would be checked and the forgotten tax-payer would rejoice.

We have heretofore alluded to this hypocricy of the protectionists, which the Sun so cleverly exposes, isn't a subject which brings the matter home to both the wheat producers and the consumers. The farmer is not only cut out of the protective tariff which is supposed to be levied for his benefit, but under "bond" foreign wheat can be brought here, ground and exported without paying the duty. This robs the farmer of the advantage he might get out of the export demand, because it is being supplied by wheat brought here, from Canada or Russia for instance, in bond. It also, in case of a short supply of home-raised weeat, compels the consumer to buy the home product at high prices, while relief otherwise may be had by bread-eaters by importing Canadian wheat to be ground for consumption here. In neither case does the farmer get anything out of it, for the millers fix the price and if the home farmer does not care to take it, the miller simply buys Canadian wheat in bond so he can export flour in competion with that ground from American wheat.

An almost similar instance of how the cattle raiser is cut out of his protection can be mentioned. The meat trust fixes the price of cattle and also the price of the dressed product, so that the papers of this country only a few days ago published the fact that while cattle raisers are getting a very low price for their stock, the packers are geting increased prices for their dressed meats.

SOMETHING EASY FOR PATTERSON.

Oscar J. Spears had gall to come to white supremacy headquarters to make a speech. Spears imagines that that he is running for Congress against the Hon. Geo. B. Patterson, but if he cuts no more ice anywhere in the Sixth district than he does in this neck of the woods Mr. Pattersen need not have any fears.

Mr. Patterson represented this district in Congress for the past two years, and his services to the Democratic party were so loyal and faithful that he was re-nominated for another term of two years. He has not spoken here during the campaign, but didn't have to, as he has the hearty support of all Democrats down this way. He has, however, made a splendid canvass in other portions of the district, and the Fayetteville Observer a few days ago stated that he had developed into a fine campaigner.

The people have confidence in Mr. Patterson, and not even respect for Spears, with his "Me, Too," line up with Roosevelt, the true prophet of social equality.

Spears' candidacy in the Sixth district is absurd, if not really humorous. We are glad Mr. Patterson did not consider him a foeman worthy of his steel and refused to be caught on the stump dividing time with him. Patterson is the only one in the ruuning, and his election is something easier than a gum shoe.

DID BARRETT'S JOB GET TOO BIG FOR HIM?

The Hon. John Barrett, American representative at Panama, declares that there is a perfect understanding between him and the Panama officials. The fact that the President has ordered Gen. Taft to go to Panama to straighten things shows that Col. Barrett has not been able to convince the administration what the understanding between him and the Panama officials is. However, all the appearances indicate that their mutual understanding is that they understand that affairs in Panama have got to such a stage that Minister Barrett was badly in need of help to handle the situation.

—— The Philadelphia Record asks, with some show of impatience, why the price of cattle is declining while the price of meat is advancing. It is, very likely, because the prices are fixed by men instead of by cattle.—Washington Post.

—— In spite of the trust buster in the White House the price of cattle is declining while the price of meat is rising under orders of the Armour combine, and the workingman's "full dinner pail," is shrinking more and more in its proportions. —Philadelphia Record.

—— Bryan and whirlwind campaigning in conjunction was too good an opportunity for Republican paragraphers to miss and they used it freely in getting off smart sayings. The cyclone, however, struck where it was not expected and the Republicans are taking to the cellars for safety.—Columbia Record.

——Secretary Morton, in his eulogy of President Roosevelt in the Independent, insists that his chief earnestly believes that "no man is above the law and no man below the law." How about the 439 unmolested law-breaking trusts and the unpunished postoffice rascals?—New York World.

—— What difference does it make to the government how much the cabled reply of Governor Wright to Judge Parker cost the Treasury? The government is in the business of campaigning just now, and the fact that it is largely paying the expenses out of the public funds is nothing new, and certainly is not worrying the government.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Saves Two from Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y.; "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free.

Had Catarrh

For Fifteen Years and Dreaded Consampction.

Vinol Worth One Thousand Dollars to Arthur Gaul.

Mr. Arthur Gaul of Wellsville, Ohio, writes: "I wish every one suffering from catarrh or bronchial troubles knew the value of Vinol as I do. Before taking it I had catarrh for fifteen years, and for the last year I had a pain in my lungs and coughed night and day, which caused me to lose flesh. I felt sure I was going into consumption, as nothing seemed to help me.

"Vinol was recommended, and after taking four bottles I am entirely cured. I would not take $100 for the good it has done me. I wish I could persuade everybody who suffers from catarrh and bronchial troubles, or who dreads consumption, to take Vinol."

To further convince the people of Wilmington in regard to the value of Vinol, I, Robert R. Bellamy, declare it to be the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil for all wasting diseases, the greatest health restorer and strength creator for the weak, the convalescent and the aged which we have ever sold in our store.

I can only ask every person in Wilmington to try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if it fails. This is a fair, honest offer on which you cannot lose. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back for an Old One—How It Is Done in Wilmington.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Wilmington citizen.

J. A. White, electrician for the Coast Line Railroad, at Rocky Mount, residing at 206 North Sixth street, says: "I have had great trouble with my back, right across the loins, and when I sit still for a while I hardly knew how to move and when I did you would think I was seventy-five years old. There were pains all over me and I could not tell where they were to strike me. I used liniments and lots of remedies but nothing did me any permanent good until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Bellamy's drug store and used them. They helped me in a very short time and seemed almost to oil up my joints; in fact, I have not had the pains since I used them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of one point to a decline of one point or better than due on the cables and the general favorable showing of the early weather reports. There was no confirmation of yesterday's rumors that the Fall River strike had been broken, but sentiment on the whole seemed rather more favorable to the market, possibly owing to the outlook for smaller receipts and a lessened pressure of actual cotton. Buying did not seem aggressive, however, and after the first demand was filled, the market sagged off, ruling quiet but about steady around last night's level.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Cotton was dull at 10.00c, net receipts 773 bales; gross receipts 4,630 bales; stock 73,363 bales.

It is much easier for a woman to confide in the average woman than in the average man. She knows that the man will respect her confidences and keep them to himself. He is strong, has more experience of the world and can help the woman who needs advice. There is every reason why women should not trust their delicate constitutions in the hands of unskilled persons. It requires a thorough medical education to appreciate and understand the womanly organism. When a woman has ills and pains that she cannot bear —when life seems dark for every woman, she should confide her troubles to a physician of standing in the community, or one who has a national reputation. Certainly it would not be the part of wisdom to confide in an ignorant person without medical education simply because she was a woman. There is every reason why she should write to some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century, like Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All his correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhea, that, after curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

WINTER'S APPROACH

A day of sunshine now and then, but these frosty mornings admonish us that sable Winter is almost here. That suggests the comforts and satisfaction of one of our modern heaters. We have them this year of every shape and kind—just the one to suit. Or, perhaps, it's a cooking stove or range. We have those too. And the point we are making for them all is that they furnish an even maximum of heat with the greatest economy of fuel.

We are yours just now for stoves and ranges, but all the time for hardware and agricultural implements. Let us serve you.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— The Selma News Company has been organized and in the next week or so will begin the publication of a weekly paper.

— Raleigh News and Observer: The Caraleigh Cotton Mills is putting in a new dyeng plant, invented by S. W. Kramer, of Charlotte. It is a new design and the Caraleigh mills are the first to adop it.

— Raleigh News and Observer: There is a law or rule that Roosevelt formerly insisted that Federal office-holders should not take active part in politics. In North Carolina to-day many postmasters are running for office and many others are the active political managers. In Bladen the postmaster of Clarkton is a candidate for the Senate.

— At Public landing Thursday night at Washington, N. C., an elderly negro named Thomas Peyton, was dangerously wounded by his son-in-law, a young negro named Wooten. A shot gun was the weapon used, and the victim's head and neck were filled with shot. His recovery is doubtful. The assailant is at large. Feeling runs high among his own race, as the old man was a highly respected negro, and trouble may result if the wounded man dies.

— Charlotte Observer: In mentioning the fact that partridges are plentiful this year, the Raleigh Times notes a circumstance that has been observed by sportsmen—that the habits of birds have changed in the past twenty years. Then when a covey of birds was flushed, they flew what was termed by hunters "bird lengths," a distance of about one hundred yards. Now they often go half a mile and then light in trees, a thing hardly ever known twenty years ago. It is not unusual, late in the season, for a covey, after having been flushed, to disappear so completely as to defy efforts of men and dogs to again get sight of a single bird.

— Ben Clark, the negro who was convicted in the Cleveland county Superior Court of the murder of B. E. Hamrick, the chief of police of Shelby, was hanged in the county jail yard at Shelby on Friday. Although Sheriff A. B. Suttle, by compliance with the law, had built a plank fence around the jail yard so as to make the execution private, yet more than 2,000 people gathered on the hillside and surrounding housetops and other places of elevation to witness the execution. Clark made a short talk, warning his friends against gambling, bad company and the use of liquor, to which he attributed his sad state. In part he said: "The time is soon at hand when I must go to meet my God, but I am well satisfied. I now warn my friends to turn aside from gambling and bad company and from liquor."

— Says the Salisbury Sun: We are not at all envious about it but the way our Charlotte friends have of appropriating every good thing to themselves is amazing. Hear the Chronicle: "The Chronicle has never had any doubts about electric power coming to Charlotte from the Yadkin. The only question in its mind was to the time that it would come and the amount to be supplied. It is now stated that the Whitney Reduction Company which is investing about $5,000,000 in a plant at the Narrows, will be here within two years with 10,000 horse power. By that time, the expansion of manufacturing industries in Charlotte will be sufficient to absorb all that amount and call for more. The four C.'s Company will probably be supplying electric power also, from the Catawba. From an electrical standpoint, Charlotte promises to be the Buffalo of the South." Why not have added that Salisbury, Concord, Lexington and High Point would get their power via Charlotte.

On Wednesday night chief of Police J W. Ervin and Deputy Sheriff A. O. Yount of Newton, went to Conover after Frank Highley, a negro who had been selling liquor without license. They found the negro and arrested him. He was in the house and before going with them to jail here, he wanted to put on his shoes. Pretending to do this, he suddenly sprang up, gave Mr. Ervin a push that sent him in the corner, ran out the door and slammed it shut behind him. By the time the officers could get outside he was some distance ahead of them and running rapidly. The officers started in pursuit and began firing their pistol.. They say they had no intention of hitting the negro in any dangerous place. But their aim was at fault, and the negro was shot just above the hip on the right side and the ball was found just under the skin in front. Drs. Campbell and Herman examined him and said that the ball did not pass through the cavity of the stomach, but went around the muscles. Still the negro complained very much and Thursday night he died in the jail.

Testimony of a Minister.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For twelve years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters, and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It is guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Only 50c. †

Lion Signs In England.

In the middle ages the country houses of the nobility in England when the owners were absent were used as hostels for travelers. The family arms always hung in front of the house, and gave it a popular name among travelers, who called a lion "gules" or azure simply "red" or "blue." As these were intimations of good cheer and entertainment, innkeepers adopted the idea.

Lions have always been, and are now, very favorite signs in England; lions white, black, red, brown, golden, yellow—red being the most common. Probably the Red Lion originated with the badge of John of Gaunt, duke of Lancaster, who married the daughter of Don Pedro, king of Leon and Castile, and who adopted the lion rampant gules of Leon to represent his claim to the throne. Under Richard and John lions became the settled arms of England, and were generally used by those who could find any claim.

A Perfect Nose.

Nothing is more rare than a really perfect nose—that is, one which unites harmony of form, correctness of proportion and proper affinity with the other features.

The following are, according to the rules of art, the conditions requisite to the beauty of this organ:

The nose should have the same length as the forehead and have a slight depression at its root. From its root to its extremity it should follow a perfectly straight line, and come exactly over the center of the upper lip. The bridge of the nose, parallel on both sides, should be a little wider in the center. The tip should be neither too thin nor too fleshy, and its lower outline neither narrow nor too wide. The lobes must be gracefully defined by a slight depression. Seen sideways, the lowest part of the nose will have but a third of its total length.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Don't Take Chances With Kidney Troubles,

Dizziness, pains in the back, irregularities of the urine, and other seemingly slight symptoms, should not be neglected, for they are warnings that the kidneys are out of order, and serious results are sure to follow if prompt and proper treatment is neglected.

There is no disease so dangerous or so sure to result fatally as diseases of the kidneys or bladder, when neglected and allowed to reach a serious stage. Because the disease causes slight inconvenience, many people are prone to pay no attention to the first warnings, and before they are aware of the danger, they are completely in the grasp of the disease. Diabetes, irritation of the bladder, gravel, uremic poisoning, are stages of the diseases which are to be dreaded.

The most reliable remedy, as has been proven by thirty years of tests in severe cases, is Stuart's Gin and Buchu. This remedy is the result of years of scientific research, and the great good derived from its use proves its value in every case. Below we can give a few extracts from the thousands of letters in our possession, showing the benefit which has been derived from its use:

a trial sample absolutely free.

"I have tried the free sample bottle of Stuart's Gin and Buchu, and it gave almost instant relief. Your remedy has done me more good than all the medicine I ever used, and I now feel no effects of the bladder trouble at all."—Brown Smith, Thomaston, Ga.

"One of my customers tried all the doctors here and a number of kidney medicines, and one bottle of Stuart's Gin and Buchu did him more good than all the treatment he ever took. It is a wonderful remedy."—J. H. Benham, Druggist, Rockport, Tex.

"I am now on the third bottle of Stuart's Gin and Buchu, and am glad to say it is doing me much good."—John B. Wilkerson, Sandersville, Ga.

"I think your Stuart's Gin and Buchu has done me more good than anything I ever tried before."—Mrs. J. V. Roberts, Savannah, Ga.

"I have taken two bottles of Stuart's Gin and Buchu with highly satisfactory results, and believe that one more bottle will cure me."—D. P. Higgins, Oglethorpe, Ga.

"I suffered since childhood with bladder trouble. Was in bed three weeks, when I read of Stuart's Gin and Buchu, and after taking same three weeks I was well.—Mrs. Ida McElroy, Columbia, S. C.

Send Your Name and Address to-day for a trial bottle, which we will send you absolutely free, and thus give you an opportunity to thoroughly test our remedy, without expense to you. We are sure that there is no case that Stuart's Gin and Buchu will not cure, but we do not ask you to take our word for it; send for a trial sample and judge for yourself. SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 30.

THE WIFE MURDER CASE AT CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.

Letters of Accused and His Wife Admitted as Evidence—Court Adjourned Until Monday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Oct. 30.—When the trial of ex-Mayor McCue, charged with the murder of his wife, was resumed to-day the court announced that the letters written by the accused to his wife during the period from 1899 to 1901, offered by the defence and which were excluded yesterday, would be admitted as evidence, together with the letters written by Mrs. McCue to the defendant during the same period.

Edgar Crawford, a brother of Mrs. McCue, resumed the stand and identified the letters of Mrs. McCue.

Mr. Walker, of counsel for the defence, read the letters written by Mrs. McCue to her husband, some while she was away and others while he was absent from home. They were couched in terms of endearment and devotion. Some expressed solicitude for his comfort and suggested that he was making a mistake "toiling so hard." One letter read: "If you were only here I would be happy every minute."

The batch of letters written by the defendant to his wife were identified and read. They, too, expressed devotion and solicitude for her health. The letters were addressed to "Dear Little Darling," "Dear Little Sweetheart," "Dear Little Wife," and similarly. Reference was made to business success and money matters. The letters concluded by sending love and kisses, one expression being "with a heart full of love and a big sweet kiss," and another "Kisses from your old sweetheart." Other expressions were "God only knows how I love you," and "God only knows how I miss you."

The Commonwealth introduced testimony to show the good character of two of their witnesses. After Sergeant Rogers had testified that he saw a dish in one of the windows found open in the McCue residence the day after the tragedy, the Commonwealth announced that it had concluded its testimony. Counsel for defence stated that they expected to close by Tuesday night.

Court adjourned at 12:30 P. M. until Monday morning.

NEW JERSEY FOREST FIRES.

Many Thousand Acres of Timber and Brushland Burned Over—Farmers Driven from Their Homes.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BELVIDIERE, N. J., October 29.—Forest fires have been raging since Wednesday in the timber of the Blue Ridge mountains and in the four days have spread over 20,000 acres of timber and brushland and along a track twenty miles eastward from Wind Gap, Pa. To night there is no cessation of the on-rush of the fire. Immense clouds of smoke and cinders are being wafted for miles down by the wind. Scores of farmers and squatters have been forced to flee with their movable possessions as the fire has extended toward them.

The timber is as dry as tinder and the fire, once started in the pines and the dense covering of leaves, has shot along with wonderful rapidity in spite of the efforts of the residents of the locality and the State fire wardens who began the fight when the fire started. The wind is driving the flames to the eastward, but so dry is the undergrowth that a column of flame has worked its way several miles to the windward, smouldering through the long, dry grass and leaves.

Thousands of partridges, rabbits, squirrels and other small game are fleeing before the rush of fire east. Wardens who have penetrated to the interior of the burned district say that the slaughter of the wild animals has been immense.

G. F. & A. RAILWAY.

Mortgage for One Million Dollars Filed at Bainbridge, Ga.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BAINBRIDGE, GA., Oct. 29.—A mortgage for one million dollars was filed in the clerk's office this morning. The filer of the mortgage is the Georgia, Florida & Alabama Railway, and the document is in favor of the Manhattan Trust Company, of New York city, which will underwrite the bonds. The mortgage states that it is for the purpose of making such improvements and extensions of their road northward from Cuthbert toward Atlanta, either by way of Richland or Lumpkin, or for making any other extensions on either side of the Georgia, Florida & Alabama Railway, or for diverting lines through Florida.

AN AUTO RACE.

Ten-Mile Contest for Championship Won by B. Oldfield.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Barry Oldfield won the auto track championship of the world at the Empire City track, defeating Paul Sartori, the driver of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s car in the final heat of the four-cornered ten mile race. His time was 9.12 3-5, which beats all world's record for ten miles on a track from a standing start, by two-fifths of a second. Oldfield had previously defeated Bernin and Sartori had beaten Thery.

JAPAN RIDICULES RUSSIAN STORY.

Denies That Any of Her Torpedo Boats Were Among the Hull Trawlers in North Sea.

THE FEELING IN ENGLAND.

Confidence Expressed That Report of the Russian Admiral Will be Shown to be False—International Conference—Russian Squadron.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Profound satisfaction over the fact that an arrangement has been reached and the entire certainty that the result of the commission of inquiry will be to discredit Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's statements anent the presence of torpedo boats among the North Sea fishing fleet, marks the comment of the London afternoon newspapers almost universally. The admiral's story, it is pointed out, has the great advantage that it is capable of precise proof or disproof. "The Russian admiral can only make good his case by producing the vessel whose presence he alleges was among the trawlers," says the Westminister Gazette. This feeling that the British contention will be up held, pervades all classes and disposes the public to calmly await the verdict.

The composition of the international commission is the immediate subject of communications passing through St. Petersburg and London. It has been suggested that it shall be comprised of five admirals, French, Russian and English, and two from smaller powers, possibly Denmark and Holland, to be nominated by their respective governments. Nothing yet, however, has definitely been decided. No American member has been suggested, though there might be an opening therefor in the proposal that one law jurist from a neutral power shall be included in the commission. Thus far, too, no time limit has been fixed for the end of the inquiry. After fuller communication with St. Petersburg, it is now understood upon the conclusion of the inquiry now proceeding at Vigo, all the Russian ships will be allowed to proceed, only the material witnesses being detained.

The Board of Trade inquiry is likely to be opened at Hull early next week and will be presided over by a naval officer, probably Admiral Sir Cyprian Bridge, assisted by a leading lawyer, the case being in charge of the solicitor of the Board of Trade. The inquiry will be confined to ascertaining the circumstances from fishermen's point of view and assessing the damage. The Russian embassy has not yet decided whether to accept the government's invitation to send a presentation. A report of the evidence will be forwarded to the international commission. The Board of Trade inquiry will express no opinion on the action of the Russian squadron.

After the excitement of the last few days a complete lull now prevails in diplomatic circles.

"Prince Keretelli, an officer on the battleship Emperor Alexander III, told me that the transport Areadaur was surrounded by eight torpedo boats or vessels carrying torpedo tubes. The Areadaur signalled her danger and when our battleships advanced we did not for one moment suppose that the attacking vessels should be fishermen."

Later in the day the British cruiser Lancaster arrived from the south, anchored outside the harbor and exchanged salutes with the fort and the Russian squadron. Her commander shortly afterwards went on board the Russian flagship Kniaz Souva roff and and had a conference lasting twenty minutes with Admiral Rojestvensky. The Lancaster subsequently sailed, clearing the harbor at 6 p. m.

TANGIER, MOROCCO, October 29.—Four Russian warships, three torpedo boat destroyers and five colliers arrived here this morning. The Russian flagship exchanged salutes with the French cruiser Kleber and the British cruiser Diana.

The Russian vessels now here comprise the battleships Oslabia, Sissoi Veliky and Navarin, the armored cruiser Admiral Nakhimoff and seven torpedo boats besides colliers.

The Russian officers say they will remain here about a week. It is rumored that they will remain at Tangier until the inquiry into the North Sea incident is ended.

A Denial From Japan.

TOKIO, October 29, 3:30 P. M.—The reported statement of an officer on board the Russian battleship Emperor Alexander III, with the Russian Baltic squadron now at Vigo, Spain, to the effect that there were foreign boats among the Hull trawlers when they were fired upon recently by the Russian warships and that the Japanese government was said to have purchased torpedo boats in England, coupled with the insinuation that the torpedo boats with the trawlers were Japanese, has been received in Japan with a mixed feeling of indignation and derision.

It is officially declared in the most positive terms that Japan has neither purchased nor ordered a single torpedo boat in England since the outbreak of the war.

The Russian Squadron.

VIGO, SPAIN, Oct. 29.—The Russian squadron is still in port.

Upon the main question relative to the identity of the Japanese torpedo boats said to have been seen among the Hull fishing fleet during the night of October 21-22, Vice Admiral Rojestvensky said to the Associated Press to-day:

"Rumors had reached me that the Japanese would attack the squadron, and when I suddenly saw that night the two torpedo boats between our two divisions and heard the noise of the firing of torpedoes, I doubted not that they were Japanese.

BOLD ROBBERIES.

Two Residences Plundered of Valuable Diamonds and Jewelry.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct 29.—The boldest and most mysterious robberies ever committed in this city were perpetrated last night at the homes of Mr. G. A. Schieren and Col. J. M. Barker, in Fairview Addition, the thieves getting away with $1,600 worth of diamonds and jewelry from the Schieren home and $400 worth from Col. Barker's residence. There seems to be absolutely no clue for the police to work upon. The valuables were taken from rooms in which persons were sleeping. Mr. Schieren is a son of Mr. Charles A. Schieren, of Brooklyn. Mrs. A. W. Pope, of Boston, was a guest at Schieren's and some of the stolen property belonged to her.

SENATOR-ELECT RAYNER AND JUSTICE HERRICK

Speakers at a Democratic Mass eeting in New York Last Night—Issues of the Campaign Discussed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Justice D. C. Herrick, Democratic candidate for governor of New York, and Senator-elect Isidor Rayner, of Maryland, spoke here to-night at a mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall. William B. Hornblower was introduced as the presiding officer. He criticised President Roosevelt on the tariff, Panama, Philippine and Pension questions.

Senator-elect Raynerw as then introduced. He was cheered for several minutes and some one cried:

"Three cheers for Admiral Schley's lawyer." The cheers were given several times.

Mr. Rayner denied that there was general prosperity throughout the country and asserted that political parties could not create prosperity. As to the Philippines, Mr. Rayner said: "I would advise ex-Secretary Taft to make an attempt to auction the Philippine islands. Let him call at some desirable spot an international sale, and see how much he can get for them. Taft is the man for auctioneer. Let him put them up first as an entirety, and if there is no bid, let them be offered in parcels. What will you give for the Moros and Igorotes? Not a dollar. Well, they are withdrawn. What will you give for the Sultan of Zulu, trader, polygamist and pirate, with all his datos and serifs and consorts. Not a bid. Well, withdraw the Sultan of Zulu. Tell your audience, Mr. Taft, that this archipelago cost the United States six hundred millions of dollars, and try to get an offer. I tell you that I do not believe they will bring a dollar in the markets of the world. As a financial transaction they are about as valuable to us as the Dead Sea or the Desert of Sahara. Every year we are sinking millions of dollars in this investment without return."

Mr. Rayner discussed in detail other issues of the campaign. He said he wanted to impeach the "iniquitous conviction" of Admiral Schley and to show that this verdict should be obliterated from the pages of American history. Mr. Rayner said the president was a good man, but nevertheless an autocrat and a tyrant.

NO IMPORTANT ENGAGEMENT.

Russians and Japanese Are Cannonading Each Other With Little Effect. Russian Casualties.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—General Sakahaoff reports no general fighting October 28th. There was occasional cannonading along the whole front, but the Japanese fire was inefficient and the Russian casualties insignificant. The night of October 28-29 was quiet.

The general staff to-day issued a statement that the number of killed, wounded and missing in the fighting which began Oct. 9th and ended Oct. 18th, totalled 800 officers and 45,000 men.

TOKIO, Oct. 29, 4:30 P. M.—Official reports confirm the press dispatch of the capture of Waitao mountain by the Japanese on October 27th, adding that at 10 o'clock on the morning of October 28th the Russians opened a vigorous fire against Waitao mountain but stopped firing in the afternoon. A strong force of Russians assembled at Kangtajenshan and Russian guards holding the heights north of Pinniulupao completely disappeared. In other directions an artillery duel occasionally occurs.

HEADQUARTERS OF LEFT ARMY, (General Oku's,) October 28, 3 P. M. via Fusan, October 29.—The positions of the armies are unchanged.

The Russians are continually searching the Japanese lines with their artillery, firing night and day, with seldom any reply from the Japanese.

The Japanese army is now working the Yentai mines, digging enough coal for all military purposes. It is believed by mining experts that they can double the output. The gauge of the railway has been changed to Yentai and quantities of supplies and ammunition are arriving.

GOVERNOR CRITICISED.

Civil Authorities of Georgia Arraigned by Ex-Captain of Militia.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAVANNAH, GA., Oct. 29.—Captain Robert M. Hitch mailed a letter to Governor Terrell Friday night enclosing his statement relative to his recent conviction by court martial for allowing the Statesboro mob to overpower the military and take the negroes Reed and Cato and burn them. The governor himself is made the object of criticism, condemnation and censure. The civil authorities are arraigned and the personnel of the court martial which convicted him reviewed. Captain Hitch says that he expected more consideration at the governor's hands.

In this connection, it is stated by friends of Captain Hitch that the summary action of the chief executive will lead to the resignation of Mr. C. M. Hitch, the captain's brother, as the governor's private secretary.

PREDICTS JUDGE PARKER'S ELECTION

National Democratic Committee Claim That He Will Gain a Sweeping Victory.

CARRY ALL DOUBTFUL STATES

Many of the So-called Republican States Are Now in the Doubtful Column. Majority Also Claimed in the Congressional Contests.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, who said he was speaking for the committee, to-day predicted the overwhelming election of Judge Parker to the Presidency. He predicted that all the doubtful States will be Democratic and also that some States called Republican will be and are doubtful.

Secretary Woodson said: "I have every confidence that Judge Parker will be elected. I have been here one hundred days now and I am ready to announce from observation and what we have received that Parker is elected.

"All the doubtful States; so called, will be in the Democratic column and many of the States called surely Republican are now in the doubtful column.

"We will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, West Virginia, Idaho, Colorado, Utah and Nevada. In other words all the doubtful States are for us and for Judge Parker's election.

"Illinois is doubtful. Ohio is even doubtful. The big men who controlled that State are now dead. The Republicans assume they are going to win there, but we hear they might lose. Even California has sent good reports to us and we are hopeful of even carrying that State.

"Maryland is certainly Democratic and Kentucky and West Virginia are as sure as Maryland.

The 59th Congress.

WASHINGTON, October 29.—Chairman Cowherd, of the Democratic Congressional Committee, to-day issued a statement claiming 225 seats in the 59th Congress for the Democratic party. He bases this prediction on the claimed strength of the national ticket in the East and to "local dissensions in the Republican ranks" in the Middle West.

Mr. Cowherd says: "As the situation stands at present the prospects are that the Democrats will carry 225 out of the 886 districts in the United States. In the estimate I have included the States of Idaho, Utah and Wyoming.

"These are all doubtful, as matters now stand. The Democratic chances are excellent in two of the three. Our gains in the East will be due largely to the strength of the national ticket. In the Middle West they will be due more particularly to local dissensions in the Republican ranks. The long hold on patronage has bred much trouble in Republican districts and the Democrats will profit correspondingly by it."

The details of the estimate follows: Alabama, 9; Arkansas, 7; California, 4; Colorado, 3; Connecticut, 3; Delaware, 1; Florida, 3; Georgia, 11; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 10; Indiana, 7; Iowa, 2; Kansas, 3; Kentucky, 10; Louisiana, 7; Maryland, 5; Massachusetts, 4; Michigan, 2; Minnesota, 2; Mississippi, 8; Missouri, 14; Montana, 1; Nebraska, 3; Nevada, 1; New Jersey, 5; New York, 19; North Carolina, 10; Ohio, 9; Pennsylvania, 8; Rhode Island, 2; South Carolina, 7; Tennessee, 8; Texas, 16; Utah, 4; Virginia, 10; West Virginia, 3; Wisconsin, 6; Wyoming, 1. Total, 225.

REPUBLICAN CLAIMS.

Say They Will Carry West Virginia by 20,000 or More.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, who is chief of the speakers' bureau at Republican headquarters in New York, showed the President to-day a poll of West Virginia. He declined to make public the precise figures of the poll, but asserted that the Republican national ticket would carry the State by 20,000 or 25,000. "That is as sure as fate," said he, "and my prediction will be confirmed on election day. I am now on my way to West Virginia, and will spend the next week in the State. I am not needed there, but the work at national headquarters is about finished. The fight is won and I am taking the opportunity to get home to see my friends. In my judgment Roosevelt is certain of 305 votes in the electoral college and he may have 311. I do not include in my estimate the votes of Nevada and Montana, which I regard as doubtful with Republican leanings.

JUDGE PARKER

Will Speak in New Jersey and New York City This Week.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Judge Parker will make several speeches next week in addition to those previously announced. Following the address he will make at Newark, N. J., on Tuesday night, he will go to Jersey City the same night to make another speech.

He will also address the mass meeting at Cooper Union in New York city on Wednesday night, owing to the fact that Mr. Cleveland will not speak there.

Judge Parker will address the meeting of the East Side Independent Hall at Carnegie Club on Wednesday evening November second.

COLORADO MINE EXPLOSION.

The Number of Men Killed Not Yet Definitely Known.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

TRINIDAD, COLO., Oct. 29.—The number of miners killed by the mine explosion yesterday in Tercio is still unknown. Officers of the Rocky Mountain Coal Company declare that so far as they know there were only 21 men in the mine at the time of the explosion. Miners employed in the camp say that there were between 30 and 60 men in the mine. The number of dead will not be ascertained until after the mine is thoroughly explored. The men are foreigners who had been imported to take the places of strikers and their names have not been learned.

Governor Bailey, of Kansas, gives out a long report from State Accountant Rowell, showing additional shortages in the State treasurer's office accounts, aggregating about $31,000.

The World's Prize-winning Aurora Zouaves With Forepaugh & Sells.

"The pomp and circumstances of glorious war" is notably manifest in the military features to be presented here on November 15th by the great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers arenic, animal, hippodromatic and martial aggregation. Conspicuously wonderful and popular, as having, time and again, both at home and abroad, and before all the world's leading military experts, conclusively proved themselves far and away the best drilled company of either regular or volunteer soldiers ever known, come the Aurora Zouaves. They are champion marvels in phenomenal speed and perfection of drill and manual, and while it is high praise, it may truthfully be said of them that they notably surpass even their famous predecessors, the Ellsworth Zouaves of Chicago, whose triumphal tour in the deepening shadows of the greatest war of wars is still remembered by many vetrans of both the Blue and Gray, who gained from them their first instruction in the fundamental essentials by which battles are won. And in this connection, a passing tribute to the brave, brilliant and lamented Col. Elmer E. Ellsworth is due, in recalling the fact that at the very outset of a career which promised to crown him with unfading laurels, he was shot dead by the landlord of a hotel in Alexandria, Va., for hauling down the Confederate flag flying defiantly from the flagpole on its roof. Those who have seen the Aurora Zouaves, of which he was the tactical progenitor, can imagine how enthusiastically he would have praised and applauded them, and the aptness of the smile employed by The New York American and Journal, in remarking "The Aurora Zouaves are a huge red legged centipede, whose celerityland precision have astonished the military world."

OH! HO! ONCE AGAIN.

Populists Name Electoral Ticket to Carry Tom Watson's Banner Here.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 29.—Announcement was made here to-day of the Populist's electoral ticket in North Carolina to carry the presidential banner for Thomas E. Watson in the coming election. Here is the ticket: Electors at Large, James H. Sherrill, of Catawba; James B. Lloyd, of Edgecombe. First District, William M. King, Pitt; Second, Frank B. Lloyd, Edgecombe; Third, Dr. James L. Nicholson, Onslow; Fourth, Hill E. King, Wake; Fifth, W. F. Strowd, Orange; Sixth, David H. Senter, Harnett; Seventh, W. C. Wilcox, Moore; Eighth, William J. H. Kerr, Iredell; Ninth, Dr. John B. Alexander, Mecklenburg; Tenth, Andrew J. Long, Jackson county.

Hon. G. B. Patterson Here.

Hon. G. B. Patterson, of Maxton, congressman from this district, arrived on the belated Southern train this morning from a week's campaigning in the country. Mr. Patterson is in fine fettle and is making a thorough canvass of his district. Yesterday he spoke to a large crowd at Mt. Tabor, Columbus county. He is now on his way to Southport to speak Monday with the county candidates there. Other days this week, he will fill appointments in other portions of the county. Mr. Patterson hopes to speak in Wilmington before the campaign is over, possibly on the night of Nov. 5th, when Hon. H. L. Godwin will speak here.

Y. M. C. A. Men's Meeting.

There are many dates to be filled at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoons by speakers of note from neighboring towns in this and other States. The first to address the men at the Association will be Rev. Lacy L. Little, a missionary from China, who is seeking a little rest from his labors. He has been secured especially for this meeting. It is earnestly desired to have a large attendance to hear Mr. Little and besides listen to the music, which includes solos and duets selected for this occasion. Remember the time—5 P. M. All men welcome, not only to day but always. Bring a friend.

W. L. I. Big Society Comedy.

The date for the big society comedy production of the W. L. I. Dramatic Club in the Academy of Music has been changed from Friday evening, Nov. 11th, to Thursday evening, 10th. Rehearsals for the play continue with most satisfactory progress and the event promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted by amateur talent of the city. A feature will be special scenery for several of the acts. A well known scenic artist is now engaged in preparing a special drawing room scene for the play. Announcement of the sale of seats, etc., will be made in due time.

Fillyaw Division O. R. C.

Fayetteville Observer: "Fillyaw Division No. 455, Order of Railway Conductors, was formed last night at Florence, S. C., by Mr. A. B. Garretson, Assistant Grand Chief Conductor, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Mr. Garretson is assistant to Mr. E. E. Clark, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who is the Grand Chief Conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors of America, and who was a member of the Coal Strike Commission. The new division is named in memory of the late Capt. DeLeon Fillyaw, of Wilmington, N. C., for many years a conductor on the old W. & W. R. R."

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. Under a new system we have adopted we are confident a much more satisfactory city delivery will result provided subscribers will report, either in person or by postal card, every case of negligence on the part of carriers.
